- Abraham Lincoln with His Son Tad
- In 1863, President Lincoln declared the last Thursday in November would be Thanksgiving Day. He issued a turkey reprieve - which we would call a pardon - the next month in light of his son Tad's request. Lincoln became extremely close to his son Tad after the death of his older son, Willie, in 1862.
- Abraham Lincoln - Humble Beginnings
- When Abraham Lincoln did not like the way a photographer had smoothed his hair, the future President ran his fingers through it - just before the picture was taken - giving himself (and his hair) a hipper look (by today's standards).
- Abraham Lincoln - Humble Beginnings
- Born on the 12th of February, in 1809, Abraham Lincoln was America's 16th president. For many people, this man with humble beginnings was the greatest U.S. president. Learn more about him.
- Abu Bakr and ISIS - Background of a Jihadist's Name
- Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi leads insurgents called ISIS (Islamic State in Iraq and Syria) and/or (IS) (Islamic State). Does his name have a special meaning?
- Accused of Spreading Plague - Jews Burned in a Pit
- During the 14th-century plague epidemic in Europe, Jews are accused of having something to do with spreading the "Black Death" in Strasbourg, residents take violent action against their Jewish neighbors.
